ROCK YOUR LIFE

(Peters, Neels, Rick, Rick)

Rainbow-shitting unicorn-cats - oh, what a dream! You wake up...coffee first.
The girl from last night left a note, it says, "Coffee's ready, oh, what a wonderful night."
You leave for work and when you get there, your boss says, "You are my best man here, so please take the day off...nah, make it five," he smiles. You head to your bar, "One beer, please!"

Rock your life - the show is yours
Rock your life - there's no curtain call
Rock your life - don't hold back - make your day

The bartender gives you two, "One's for free." The girl to your right smiles at you,
"I like your face. Do you wanna dance with me?" You go to a club, oh, and the bouncer says,
"We're waiting for you, tonight you're V.I.P." They're playing your favorite songs very loud.
Everybody knows your name, the club is full. The people make room so you can dance.

Rock your life - the show is yours
Rock your life - there's no curtain call
Rock your life - don't hold back - make your day

When you show off your moves, the whole crowd applauds, and when the music stops, they chant your name.
Everyone turns to you, the lights turn black! A sudden flash! Oh, and the lights are back on!
The people are changing, flesh is melting, revealing horrid creatures never been seen.
You look into the eyes of what seems to be: Rainbow-shitting unicorn-cats - oh, what a dream!

Rock your life - the show is yours
Rock your life - there's no curtain call
Rock your life - don't hold back - make your day
Rock your life - the show is yours
Rock your life - there's no curtain call
Rock your life - don't hold back - make your day

Rock your life - don't hold back - make your day
